

Reflexive vs Reciprocal Pronouns

Complete each sentence with the correct pronoun.

1. Diana and Sarah always shared tricks on finding rubies, and support (themselves/ each other) to win.
2. As a team of five people, we always compete in leagues and help (ourselves/ one another) when we come across issues.
3. She taught (herself/yourself) how to construct a bridge.
4. Make (themselves/ yourself) feel better!
5. I will make (myself/yourself) a nice Medieval gatehouse.
6. The town (themselves/ itself) has been constructed solely with blocks of brick.
7. Their group of friends has more than ten professionals that can teach (one another/each other) how to hack the game.
8. I protected them from being attacked by zombies by (myself/yourself).
9. He played by (yourself/ himself) while the others watched online.
10. Steve's mom told her children to introduce (himself, themselves) to her friends before playing another round.
11. Friends, you shouldn't blame (yourself, yourselves) for losing in the game! 